The partners of Endeavour Solutions Inc. are thrilled to announce that Robert Volpato is now a partner at Endeavour Solutions Inc.

Rob has been a valued member of Endeavour Solutions since 2004 and is recognized as one of the top Microsoft Dynamics certified consultants within Canada. We are excited that he is joining the Executive Team at Endeavour. In addition to his many years of experience, he is a Certified Management Accountant (CMA) and holds an Honours Math degree from the University of Waterloo.

Those of you who have worked with Rob on various projects are already aware of the exceptional level of product knowledge, business process expertise and dedication he brings to each assignment. Rob will continue to lead our Professional Services team with a mandate to constantly grow the team's expertise and to diversify our professional services offering. As your technology partner, our goal is to continually bolster our ability to satisfy your needs.

Rob is a resident of Oakville, where he lives with his wife Vanessa and their two children Sabrina and Matthew.

Endeavour has experienced significant growth over the last few years. We now have 23 staff devoted to empowering your Dynamics GP and CRM systems. This has resulted in many excellent references from you our customers for which we are very thankful. It is heartening to hear of your confidence in our ability to deliver outstanding services. As with Rob, we will continue to make significant investments in our staff and our infrastructure, to support our efforts to consistently exceed your expectations.

If you have any questions regarding this announcement, or if you would like to phone and congratulate Rob, please call him at 905-542-2139 x 217.

On behalf of everyone at Endeavour, congratulations Rob!

Sincerely,

Terry Sunderland and Bob O'Brien
